

Building Houses ~ Building Hope

Please Ride with Me (in my thoughts) as I Ride
Coast-to-Coast on My Bicycle by Supporting Habitat for Humanity
Barbara Minnick

When you make a donation or a pledge to my ride, you will be helping Habitat for Humanity build decent, affordable housing for the needy. On March 6 I will start my ride in San Diego, CA, with approximately 30 other women with WomanTours and should arrive in St. Augustine, FL, on May 1 after riding up to 3,098 miles (or an average of 64.5 miles per day). I'm suggesting that you pledge to pay a set amount for each mile I ride; for example, if I ride all the miles (which probably won't happen 😊) and you pledge 1 penny for each mile, the total amount paid by you to Habitat would be $30.98. Or if you prefer you can just make an up-front donation. Thirty-one dollars would be about the amount you would spend for a dinner out...or a lifetime of housing with Habitat for Humanity.
